

Dr. Yukio Tamura · Professor Emeritus at Tokyo Polytechnic University, elected to 2017 Chinese Academy of Engineering Foreign Academician

It is our greatest honor to announce Dr. Yukio Tamura, who is currently Professor at Chongqing University (China), Professor Emeritus at Tokyo Polytechnic University (TPU), and Program Coordinator at TPU Wind Engineering Research Center, was elected to Chinese Academy of Engineering (CAE) Foreign Academician, announced by the CAE on November 27, 2017. CAE is a Nation's highest academy in the engineering field, and its member holds the highest academic title in China. Besides Dr. Tamura, only 4 members were elected from Japan throughout the history of CAE such as Dr. Akira Fujishima, Dr. Tasuku Fuwa, Dr. Hideki Koizumi, and Dr. Satoshi Ohmura.

We express our greatest appreciation on his continuous contribution to TPU, and dearly wish further success of Dr. Tamura.
